Additional City Information:

Sites & Attractions: New Delhi has many great places to visit or entertain clients.

- Humayun's Tomb: Located in south Delhi, this attraction is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The burial ground of second Mughal emperor Humayun and outlying tombs of Iza Khan and Babur are surrounded by extravagant gardens and are intertwined with beautiful walkways.
- Handicrafts and Natural Products Emporium: Visit one of Delhi's largest and oldest emporiums of handicrafts and herbal products. Make your way around the complex comprised of two 4-story buildings, and browse the textiles, handmade crafts, plant remedies, herbal soaps, shampoos, oils and natural fragrances the region has to offer.
- Indira Gandhi Indoor Stadium: Covering over 102 acres, the facility holds the title as India's largest indoor sports arena. The 3-floor air conditioned stadium hosts a number of tournaments including the Asiad Games and Commonwealth Games.

Sporting Events: As the home to multiple professional sports teams, New Delhi offers many opportunities to enjoy exceptional athletic events. You can purchase tickets at in.bookmyshow.com or at the ticket window. Professional sports teams include Delhi Daredevils, Delhi Giants, AIFF-U19 Club, Delhi Hurricanes, Delhi Lions and Force India F.

Tipping: It is customary to tip for good service provided in New Delhi. Tipping is expected in the following circumstances:

- Taxis: If the journey was comfortable, round up fare to the nearest whole Indian Rupee (INR).
- Restaurants: The usual tip is around 10% if no service charge was already added.
- Hotels: For the porter that carries your luggage, a 45 INR tip per bag is appropriate.
